

Journée d'études internationale

Protest! Historical and Contemporary Perspectives on the Ethics of Dissent

9h - 18h30

Campus LSH, Nancy
Bâtiment G - salle G04

27 Octobre 2023

contact : stephane.guy@univ-lorraine.fr

Program

Protest!

- 9.00-9.15 Welcome and introduction (Stéphane Guy, Université de Lorraine)
- 9.15-10 Keynote 1: Glenn Burgess (University of Hull)
"George Orwell: From Protest to Revolution"
- 10-10.30 Questions
- 10.30-11 Coffee break
- 11-11.25 Eleanor Parkin-Coates (Université de Lorraine)
"George Cruikshank in Protest: The Artist as a Public Moralist"
- 11.25-11.50 Julie Momméja (Université de Lorraine)
"From the street to the screen: offline and online dissent in the San Francisco Bay Area"
- 11.50-12.20 Questions
- 12.20-2.15 Lunch
- 2.15-3.00 Keynote 2: Ruth Kinna (University of Loughborough)
"Anarchism & Resistance: War and Scapegoating"
- 3.00-3.30 Questions
- 3.30-4 Coffee break
- 4-4.25 Marc Lenormand (Université Paul Valéry - Montpellier III)
"'If it means lives lost that is how it must be': the ethics of strike action in the NHS from the Winter of Discontent to the Nurses' Strike of 2023"
- 4.25-4.50 Jeremy Tranmer (Université de Lorraine)
"'They shall not pass!': British anti-fascists and the ethics of political violence"
- 4.50-5.20 Questions
- 5.20-5.50 Colin Tyler (University of Hull)
"When Protest is a Duty, Not a Right"
- 5.50-6.30 Questions and concluding remarks (Colin Tyler)

Campus LSH, Nancy
Bâtiment G - salle G04
contact : stephane.guy@univ-lorraine.fr